national level for the potential workers and recruiters, preparation of a national manpower profile for overseas deployment, enhancing the quality of technical training and certification, establishing a model migrants resource centre to provide information to potential Emigrant workers and an information campaign to create awareness among potential migrant workers on the risks of illegal migration.

The Project also envisages a pilot placement programme between India and the five participating EU countries.

As present, the vast majority of the semi-skilled/skilled workers from India go to the Gulf countries for employment. This project will help diversify India's overseas employment destination base to a region where considerable employment opportunities are expected to emerge in the ensuing years.

The Ministry has been taking several measures to address the problem of illegal migration including introducing e-governance, revamping the recruiting agency system, liberalization of the migration policy regime etc. This project will be a part of the Government's efforts to reduce illegal migration to the European Union and facilitate legal migration. It is expected that in the medium to long term all these measures will help and reduce the problem of illegal migration from India.
